Volunteer for the state’s premier nonprofit and community leadership conference! During the annual, one-day conference, nonprofit and community leaders will network, share best practices, and learn from experts and peers. As the keynote speaker and IAA Ceremony emcee, Tarik Glenn, Co-Founder of D.R.E.A.M Alive, Inc. and Super Bowl Champion Indianapolis Colts Offensive Lineman, retired, will share his thoughts on Giving Back to our Community: Why We Do What We Do.

IUPUI Campus Center
420 University Boulevard
Indianapolis, IN 46202
For information about campus parking, visit www.parking.iupui.edu

For more information about the conference, visit www.savi.org/conference
To learn about the Indiana Achievement Awards, go to http://IAA.iupui.edu

Volunteer Information

Responsibilities:

Volunteer assignments will include facilitating registration, directing attendees to conference and the workshops, assisting presenters, and minimal tear down at the end of the conference.

All volunteers are expected to:

• Wear business casual attire
• Arrive 15 minutes before their shifts begin
• Provide their own meals if needed
• Provide contact information (name, email, phone number) to volunteer coordinator

Volunteer Shifts:
Shift 1: 7:00 am - 9:30 am
Shift 2: 9:30 am - 12:00 pm
Shift 3: 12:00 pm - 2:30 pm
Shift 4: 2:30 pm - 5:00 pm

You may sign up for multiple shifts.

To sign up, please contact:

Ruth Hinkle
The Polis Center at IUPUI
1200 Waterway Blvd, Suite 100
Indianapolis, IN 46202
ruthinkl@iupui.edu

Hosted by:

SAVI Information for Communities
IUPUI Solution Center
Indiana University-Purdue University Indianapolis

Partners: Indiana CTSI Community Health Engagement Program (CHEP), Office of the Indiana Attorney General, Indiana Grantmakers Alliance, The Center on Philanthropy at Indiana University, and United Way of Central Indiana